

John D Pribula

461 Richland Ave.
Athens, OH 45701
Mobile: 330-412-6803
pribula@ohio.edu

OBJECTIVE

To further my career as an IT professional through hands on skill attainment

SKILLS

MS Operating Systems setup and support DOS through Windows 7
Windows Server 2003 & 2008 SP2, R2 setup and Active Directory Administration
Exchange Server 2003 SP2 administration
Linux, UNIX, Mac OS 9 and 10 administration
Extensive Mac OS X Server Administration
Network infrastructure installation, setup, and troubleshooting
Microsoft Office XP 2000 2003 2004 2007 2008
Extensive Knowledge of CSS2 and 3, HTML4 and 5, XML, PHP4 and 5, MySQL, ASP, Visual Basic Knowledges of ColdFusion markup.
Data entry and file updating
Various Coding IDE's including Coda, Eclipse, and Visual Studio.
Training on the setup and maintenance of various computer based scientific equipment.

EMPLOYMENT

Ohio University, Athens, OH 2007-Present

IT Support Specialist for Biological Sciences, Linguistics, O.P.I.E, Modern Languages, and L.R.C. Classroom labs
Handle daily tech support tickets through footprints for the College of Arts and Sciences Departments of Biological Sciences, Linguistics, and Modern Languages.
Maintain the computers for O.P.I.E. and the L.R.C. Classroom labs.
Temporarily the tech support person for the Department of Environmental and Plant Biology while they were in search of a new IT Support Specialist.
Maintain or previously maintained the websites for the L.R.C., O.C.E.E.'s, G.A.S.C., Biological Sciences, and Plant Biology.
Implemented a web-based reservation system for rooms and equipment with LDAP authentication in the L.R.C. as well as a web-based checkout system for said items.
Created a secured blog environment for the faculty in Gordy hall. With video blogging and video commenting capability
Maintain servers in Biological Sciences, English(Ellis hall), Modern Languages, Linguistics, and Plant Biology, in all a total of 13 servers on mixed OS platforms.
Migrated a php based web-app for Graduate Applications from a IIS to LAMP environment and then to a MAMP environment.
Fixed problems with email functions in the Graduate Application web-app.
Have instructed several faculty on the basic knowledge of HTML and CSS.
Implementing a Localized secured web-based streaming content system with LDAP authentication.
Established an Open Directory on Apple XServes to maintain and administer client Mac's in Gordy Hall.
Investigated new technology for use in the classroom and have given tutorials to faculty and staff on the use of these new technologies.

MK Morse, Canton, OH 2006-2007

PC Hardware/Software Technician, Network Administration Assistant
Investigate hardware problems and performs minor system hardware and communication connection repairs of 200+ computers.
Supported SolarSoft (formerly CMS) ERP PC implementation in a factory environment.
Assisted in Network Administrator duties of 10 servers. All duties performed on Windows machines and IBM mainframes.
Designed mobile battery powered pc workstations for use throughout factory.

MK Morse, Canton, OH Summer 2002

Furnace operator, Utility Worker
Tempered hole saw as a furnace operator and did quality control check in of hole saws and hack saws.

Free-Lance IT Consultant 2000-Present

Created a free and open-source web-based helpdesk ticketing system written in php5 and MySQL.

Built custom PC's, and setup networks for clients. Did troubleshooting of various systems, networks, and peripherals while attending college
Mostly Windows machines and a few linux systems.

EDUCATION

Ohio University, Athens, OH 2000-2005

Major: Electrical Engineering with Computer Engineering

Courses included business, business math, calculus, circuit design, electrical and computer engineering, physics, technical writing, and computer programming

Unable to finish do to financial reasons.

ECSV Career Academy 1999-2000

Computer Technology adult education course

Topics included desktop publishing, web design, data entry, use of Microsoft Access, and use of the Microsoft Office Suite